

Youth Development Logic Model

OUR OBJECTIVES

- Program staff are well-trained and deliver high quality programs that meet program benchmarks
- Youth are better prepared for their school day as a result of program participation
- Youth believe they are capable of learning new things and persist at difficult tasks
- Youth are emotionally healthy
- Parents are engaged in their children's learning

INPUTS		OUTPUTS				OUTCOMES
WHAT WE INVEST		ACTIVITIES		PARTICIPATION		SHORT TERM		MEDIUM TERM		LONG TERM
Staff Parents Property Management Time	•	Program Quality Assurance Staff training & coaching Assessment of program & operations quality	•	Site Coordinators and Field Staff		Well-trained staff Program meets average daily attendance goals	>	Program quality that exceeds industry standards		 Cohesive, high functioning staff team High level of trust with youth, parents, and community
Money Research Base Materials Equipment Technology Affordable Housing	•	Academic Support Outreach and communication with youth's teachers Homework assistance Development of technology skills	•	School teachers and K-12 youth	>	Children exceed 100 days of program attendance High satisfaction with program High level of school engagement	>	Improved parent and teacher ratings Increased homework completion		Successful graduation from high school
Partnerships	•	Enrichment Activities that Support Exploration and Learning Project-based learning activities (Virtual Vacation Curriculum) Balanced literacy (Kidzlit)	•	K-12 youth	•	Improved motivation to read Increased reading comprehension	>	• Improved parent ratings of youth's learning motivation	•	High self-esteem Increased task persistence
	•	Activities that Support Healthy Development Violence prevention program (PeaceBuilders) Daily physical activity and recreation Nutritious daily snack	•	K-12 youth	>	Sense of belonging Respect for self, others, and community	>	 Reduced behavioral problems Positive social- emotional development 	•	 Positive values Effective communication skills Healthy habits
	•	Family Involvement and Engagement Outreach and communication with youth's parents Monthly family involvement activities	•	Parents and families of program participants		Parents are knowledgeable of program and activities	>	Improved parent and family participation in activities	•	High level of parent involvement in youth's education and development